Ice Cream Day (Augustus Jackson)

Students will enjoy an Ice Cream Treat at school to celebrate Augustus Jackson. Augustus Jackson was an African American candy confectioner, born on April 16, 1808, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He served as a chef in the White House in the 1820s. Jackson would eventually leave the White House and start his own catering and confectionery business in his hometown. It was during this time that Jackson invented new ice cream recipes and better technique to make the world's favorite dessert.
